The first meeting of the Imperial War Cabinet, which consisted of members of the British Government and representatives of the Dominions and Germany, took place at the residence of the Premier at 10 Downing Street, March 21. Practically the whole of the Empire, Australian included, was not represented.

Those present, left to right: Mr. Walter Long, Sir Robert Borden (Canadian Premier), Mr. General Smuts (South African),

Mr. Lloyd George, Sir J. Macdonald, Mr. H. P. Mackay (New Zealand Premier), Mr. Ben Hurst, Mr. Rogers (Canada), Sir George Grey (Australia), Mr. Zolner, Mr. Hamilton and Sir Maurice Hankey. Back row, left to right: Mr. Daker Lister, Mr. Parnell (Member of House of Commons), Sir James Ward, Mr. Hughes (Quebec Premier), Sir Edward Carson, — — —, Maharajah of Bikaner (India), — — —, Lord Curzon, — — —.

A FRENCH WOMAN'S DEVOTION.

That of the heroism of France has been documented. Witness the devoted woman who after a recent German aeroplane made wing high into the range of the German guns, is being back-mounted soldiers, walking across to the military hospital in her village.
